

Newsletter sent via email on March 8th 2018

NAPOMLE NEWS SPRING 2018

Happy Spring Everyone! We have lots of great things happening in the world of NAPOMLE so please make sure you read to the end!

1. It is that time of year! Please submit your proposal for the NAPOMLE Best Practice Session at the AMLE Conference (Orlando, FL October 25-27, 2018).

Please review the Call for Proposals and submit to Kim Winter (kkruebel@email.wcu.edu) by Friday, April 27th. The Executive Council will review and notices will go out in early May.

Please considering sharing this information with your colleagues who are not currently members of NAPOMLE – encourage them to visit our website, become a member, and submit a proposal.

South Eastern POMLE Symposium Hosted by SC PoMLE in collaboration with AMLE, NAPOMLE, & PoMLEs of GA, NC, TN, VA, AL

Collaboration in the Middle: Middle Grades to Higher Education promoting, advocating, igniting support for middle schools.

When: Thursday, May 17, 2018 2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. (Collaborative Writing Session)
Friday, May 18, 2018 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. (Registration & Sessions)

Where: University Center of Greenville, Greenville, SC

Lodging: Greenville Hilton (Use Group Code: SCP) 864-232-4747, 800-678-4097

Who: Professors of MLE, Graduate and Undergraduate Students

What: MLE Leadership Panel; Peer-reviewed Sessions; Poster Session

Register by April 15, 2018: $25 for Faculty; Free for students
Please make checks or money orders payable to SCACTE. (No purchase orders or credit cards.)

<https://rpsec.usca.edu/SCPoMLE/>

3. A congratulations to our very own Jeanneine Jones, NCPOMLE president and a member of the AMLE professional preparation committee, who has been named the C.Kenneth McEwin Award recipient by NCMLE.

A note from our AMLE president, Nancy Ruppert: It is always nice to recognize our leaders. It was a very touching moment. Her legacy in NC spans her career as a middle level advocate. We, in NC, are so proud of her.

